

Written Comments received from the public and GBNA responses to comments:

Written Comments received from the public:

There have been no comments or complaints this year or the prior two years, in regards to the bank's performance in helping the communities' credit needs.

GBNA responses to comments:

Since there have not been any comments, we have no responses.